FRIENDS-OTHER ITEMS. [Correspondence of the Richmond Dispatch.] AUGUST 7, 1878. The Conservative Convention to nominate a candidate for Congress in the Fourth district met at the Academy of Music in this city last night. The call of the roll of delegates showed that ninety-one of the one hundred and thirty-two elected were present. The Convention was called to order by Captain William E. Hinton, Jr., chairman of the District Committee, who briefly explained why Petersburg had been selected as the place, and the 6th of August as the time, for holding the Convention. county, was elected president, Mr. W. S. Individual. Archer, of Powhatan, vice-president, and John J. Campbell, of Petersburg, seereinterest in the proceedings. The friends of Colonel Samuel F. Coleman made a gallant fight in his behalf, and endeavored to obtain an adjournment of the Convention to Burkeville on the 4th of September. This was voted down by a cussion, and was finally disposed of by its large majority. The name of Captain William E. Hinton was placed in nomination for Congress by Mr. D. M. Bernard, of Brunswick, and seconded by Colonel J. P. sented before any proceedings were had. Minetree, of Petersburg, and Mr. J. Rayenscraft Jones, of Brunswick.

Colonel Samuel F. Coleman was nominated by Mr. R. B. Berkeley, of Prince Edward, and the nomination was seconded by Mr. Thomas M. Miller, of Powhatan, and Mr. Thomas Williams, of Mecklenburg. The speeches on both sides were hand-

Committees were then appointed to wait them appeared, Colonel Coleman being the first to come in. He made a brief speech.

Colonel Hinton returned his hearty thanks to the Convention for the honor and exalted trust which for the second time had been reposed in him. He accepted the nomination with a full sense of its responsibility, and with the purpose of meeting and discharging it to the best of his ability. He declared himself to be a greenback man, an advocate of a clear sweep of the internalrevenue system, and a readjuster. His platform was greeted with great favor.

ESSEX COUNTY. [Correspondence of the Richmond Dispatch.] .

TAPPAHANNOCK, VA., August 5, 1878. This usually quiet village is considerably excited to-night over the arrival of a number of delegates and the friends of the several aspirants for Congress from this district. The hotels and boarding-houses are already well filled, and yet not more toan one balf who are expected here to-morrow have arrived.

Among the candidates already here are Judge Goolrick, General Taliaferro, Messrs. Gunter and Neely, from Accomac, and Hon. B. F. Bland. Thus far Mr. Gunter has developed the greatest strength, but the general impression to-night is that the first will be last in the struggle when it is ended. Some think that Rev. W. W. Walker, of all the candidates spoken of, will be the nominee, and if not he, that some unknown will be the lucky individual. Ex-Lieutenant-Governor Marye will be presented to the convention if none of the announced candidates are chosen. Hon. B. B. Douglas has no show for the nomination | as far as your correspondent can learn, though he is expected to make the conven-tion very lively. I will inform you the earliest moment I can of the result.

The Republicans of the district are extremely reticent with regard to their plans, but it is generally understood that unless a strong man is nominated Hon. J. B. Sener will contest for the prize.

A young son of John Dickinson, Esq., of King George county, about fourteen years old, was drowned while bathing last Saturday at Saunders's wharf, where he was visiting his relatives. His body was recovered to-day an hour or two before the arrival of his distressed father.

August 7, 1878. The barn, stable, broom-factory, crops of wheat and corn, and farming implements of every kind of Mr. F. Vunck, who resides near this place on the farm known as "Hanover Quarter," were set fire to last night and burned. It is pretty sure that the work was that of an incendiary, though no one has as yet been arrested. Mr. Vunck had a large broom-factory, and was carrying on quite an extensive and prosperous business, having in his employ some thirty or forty hands. A few days previous to the nation was made unanimous amid great enfire some fifteen or twenty of his hands struck for higher wages, which being re-fused, several of them quit work and have been roaming around the neighborhood ever since without anything to do. Discord in a Hotel.

GUESTS PAYING FOR B EDS AND GETTING PAL-LETS OF STRAW. Last Monday an excursion party, numbering between 300 and 400 colored persons, from Lynchburg, Va., and vicinity, paid a visit to this city for enjoyment and sight-seeing. On arriving they divided up Crocker; Vice-President, D. D. Colton; into small parties and searched about for Treasurer, S. T. Smith; Secretary, J. L. accommodations. Quite a number of them | Willcott. went to the Exchange Hotel, near the Baltimore and Ohio depôt, where the landlord, James Stone, agreed to provide them with a room and bed for twenty-five cents per head. The proposition was accepted, and matters went right until retiring, when there was a big row. It seems that the land- awards. lord had not sufficient beds to go round; so he concluded to try another way of catering to his guests somewhat uncommon in hotel experience. He decided first to locate eighteen of them in one room; then he got bundles of straw and proceeded to make that number of shake-downs, giving each a top-dressing of a few rags. When finished it resembled a livery-stable with the horses' beds prepared for night rather than reclining places for human beings. The visitors were greatly astonished at the kind of accommodations offered for their money, refused to accept them, and demanded the refunding of the twenty-five cents that had been paid in advance, which the landlord declined to do. Hard words followed, and for awhile trouble was imminent, but fortunately nothing serious grew out of it. with the exception that the excursionists promised to publish the contemptible conduct of Mr. Stone throughout the State of Virginia .- Washington Republican, 7th.

Germany.

Devising means to increase the revenue.

London, August 7.—A dispatch from Berlin to the Times announces that a conference of the Ministers of the Finance of the several German States to devise means for increasing the revenues of the empire began its sessions at Heidelberg Monday.

The Kissengen Conference.

Berlin, August 7.—The North German Gazette says newspaper statements regarding the conference at Kissengen between Bismarck and the Papal Nuncio are unreliable. There is great probability that the concessions mentioned in those statements are not feasible. The Gazette adds that the Kissengen negotiations have no connection with the German elections, as the conference was resolved upon long before the dissolution of Parliament was contemplated.
